

College Counseling Department

500 Van Emburgh Ave. ♦ Township of Washington, NJ 07676 ♦ Phone: 201.445.6800 ♦ Fax: 201.445.3625 ♦ www.ihanj.com

College Corner Susquehanna University, (Selinsgrove, PA)

Susquehanna offers a 21st century education that combines a liberal arts and sciences curriculum with a strong focus on career development. Students develop the critical-thinking skills and wide range of practical knowledge needed to adapt to any career path they set their sights on. Students gain these skills by working closely with professors in small classes, through valuable internships, and during off-campus study. At Susquehanna, students can dive head first into research and spirited debate. Become a leader. Study in another culture. Make discoveries about yourself and the broader world. With 100-plus majors and minors and a chance to build a custom educational program, the opportunities are endless.

Susquehanna University offers a traditional liberal arts and sciences curriculum and professional experiences—a winning combination that will prepare you for our increasingly fast-moving and interconnected world. Students are immersed in their major and gain broad-based knowledge across many academic areas. Nearly 90% have one or more internships or research experiences before graduation, an impressive number. All majors provide research opportunities with faculty members, outside agencies during the summer, and also independent projects. Professors will nurture your curiosity, challenge you, push you to new levels of competence, and help you along the path to becoming a professional in your field.

Admissions at a Glance:

- SAT Score Range: 1020-1230
- ACT Score Range: 23-28
- 99% receive aid
- Test Optional

Susquehanna at a Glance:

- 2,311 undergraduate students
- 12:1 student-faculty ratio
- 22 NCAA Division III teams
- Average Class Size is 19

College Counseling Department

Melissa O'Sullivan, Director of College Counseling • 201.445.6800, ext. 138 • mosullivan@ihanj.com
Corinne Fritzky, College Counselor • 201.445.6800, ext. 186 • cfritzky@ihanj.com